

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

VOL. XIX.—NO. 110.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 9, 1879.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

HALF-CENT COLUMN.

Advertisements in this column, such as Wanted, For Sale, To Rent, Announcements of Society Meetings, etc., will be printed at one-half cent per word, each insertion. No advertisement for less than ten cents. The large and rapidly increasing circulation of the Sentinel, among all classes of people, makes it especially valuable for this kind of advertising, and the above low rate is made for the purpose of placing this column within the reach of everybody.

CABLEGRAMS.

Sensational Reports from Russia
Denied—Church and State in France.

A Royal Commission Declares the Electric Light Too Expensive.

The Czar Issues a Proclamation
Concerning the Treaty of Berlin.

RUSSIA.

THE CONVENTION OF AFFAIRS.
St. Petersburg, May 9.—An official statement contradicting the news published abroad with reference to affairs in Russia says:

Fort Petro Paulovsky is wholly inadequate to contain 400 prisoners, to say nothing of 4,700, which it was stated had been removed therefrom to Kazan; that no prisoner has been removed from there to Kazan; that the reported arrests of officers have not taken place; that only three officers in all have been arrested since February, and that no arrests of whole families have been made.

GREAT BRITAIN.

AMERICAN SWINE.

London, May 9.—What Lord George F. Hamilton, vice president of the council, did say in the house of commons yesterday was that he had not heard of trichina in American swine. The order of the council requiring that swine from the United States shall be slaughtered at the port of lading is in consequence of typhus.

ELECTRICITY VS. GAS.

London, May 9.—The Metropolitan board of works, after recent experiments on the Thames embankment, found that electricity cost two and a fourth pence an hour per lamp more than the best gas giving equal light. The report declares that the defects connected with electric lighting must prevent its general adoption.

SPAIN.

DUTIES.

Madrid, May 9.—The civil corporations of the provinces declare that the suppression of differential duty on goods shipped in foreign bottoms has been disastrous to the Spanish mercantile navy.

Madrid, May 9.—The octroi duties on corn and flour entering Madrid have been abolished on account of the high price of provisions.

ARMY MATTERS.

The composition of the general staff of the army is fixed as follows: Four captains general, forty lieutenants general, sixty camp marshals and 160 brigadiers general.

THE EAST.

THE BERLIN TREATY.

Philippopolis, May 9.—A Russian Adjutant General Obenshchiff has arrived here and published the czar's proclamation promising strict compliance with the treaty of Berlin.

FRANCE.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Paris, May 9.—The municipal council has resolved to refuse to admit any longer free of duty articles of consumption intended for representatives of foreign countries residing in Paris. The council also decided to refer to a committee the consideration of the question of the separation of church and state.

WASHINGTON.

To-day's Proceedings in Both Houses of Congress.

Enormous Demand for the Four Percent Certificates.

Provisions of the Bill Establishing a National Board of Health.

The Senate Still Considering the Military Interference Bill.

THE FOUR PERCENTS.

Washington, May 9.—Subscriptions to the four percent refunding certificates since yesterday reached $386,680. Owing to the demand being greater than the supply the treasury department is compelled to regulate the issue of refunding certificates to depositors.

The sales in this city were getting out of all proportion to the amount of the certificates which depositors elsewhere could receive, and to-day no person was allowed to buy more than $100 in certificates.

CLARK'S SALARY.

Washington, May 9.—The committee has agreed upon a bill extending to the end of the present session the salary of the late Representative Clark.

NATIONAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

The senate committee on epidemic diseases to-day agreed upon amendments in the nature of a substitute for the bill recently committed to them concerning the national board of health and the proposed establishment of national quarantine regulations. The amendments confine the requirements of the bill to vessels coming from foreign ports where any contagious or infectious disease exists, instead of referring, as in the original bill, to vessels coming from any foreign port, and provide that the quarantine regulations framed by the national board of health shall, as far as possible, be merely supplemental to the regulations prescribed by state and municipal authorities, and be confined to them for enforcement, if they will so undertake; but, in case of refusal or failure to do so, the president may detail an officer for that purpose. The section of the bill explicitly providing authority for the board of health to establish quarantine stations on railroad or river lines of interstate commerce, and to detain goods and passengers for disinfection, is stricken out. The sections authorizing the same body to investigate the general subject of cattle diseases and to cause inspections to be made of all animals arriving at or exported from the different shipping posts in the United States are also omitted from the amendment. The measure and amount of the appropriation asked by the original bill for the expenditures by the national board of health to carry out its provisions is reduced from $550,000 to $500,000.

THE BRADEN BILL.

Washington, May 8.—There was a sharp discussion in the senate to-day over McDonald's bill to commission young Braden, of Indianapolis, as an ensign in the navy. Half a dozen senators warmly opposed the measure, taking the ground that it was unjust to our midshipmen at the naval academy, and especially to nine young men who were passed midshipmen and were only waiting for vacancies to occur to receive commissions as ensigns. If the bill passed Braden would rank them all. It also transpired that Braden's naval education in England would have entitled him to a place only as a warrant officer and not to rank as a commissioned officer. Opposition to the measure in naval circles is so active that it is doubtful whether the bill can pass, although both McDonald and Voorhees, who usually hunt in couples, have been indefatigable in their personal efforts in Braden's behalf. It is not thought that there would be any opposition to providing for Braden's appointment as an ensign after passing the regular examination at the naval academy with the present graduating class which is now at sea.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, May 9.—The house bill providing for the payment of money heretofore appropriated to Jas. B. Eads and his associates, for the construction of jetties and other work at the mouth of the Mississippi, was passed with amendments.

Consideration of the bill prohibiting military interference at elections was then resumed.

HOUSE.

A bill reported from the judiciary committee to remove the political disabilities of J. C. Pemberton, of Philadelphia, gave rise to an amusing colloquy between Conger and Cox, which cut short by moving the previous question, and the bill passed.

Scuttling Race.

Worcester, May 9.—The scuttling race for the championship, between Livingstone of Yale and Goddard of Harvard, will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

CRIME & CASUALTY.

Disorder and Violence in the Indiana Mining District.

Further Developments of Adventist Fanaticism in Massachusetts.

MINING TROUBLES.

Brazil, Ind., May 9.—The mining trouble is not over yet. Last night J. W. Bisher, a miner, was stopped by three masked men with a rope, who threatened to hang him if he did not quit work. He agreed.

They also shot through the windows of Wm. Elder's house in Stringtown, but did no damage to any person.

The strikers have notified several men to stop work or they would be killed. They say Elder must die.

Some persons entered the house of an old man working for Niblack and robbed him of all his provisions. Everything quiet to-day.

MORE ADVENT FANATICISM.

Cohasset Narrows, Mass., May 9.—The Adventist minister, Charles Brown, is announced to address the Pecosset Adventists on Sunday. The people threaten to tar and feather and ride him on a rail.

Davis, another Advent preacher, met four young men in the road near his house yesterday, drew a knife and cut up their nets and forbade them to go near his house. The people are excited.

THE SANGUINARY PENCIL PUSHER.

Indianapolis, May 8.—George C. Harding, the editor of the Herald, who attempted to assassinate Col. Light, of the Times, is still in the county jail. His bail was fixed at $4,000 to-day. Several physicians have visited him during the past two days, and have agreed that he is suffering from mental derangement. It is thought that he will be committed to the hospital for insane to-morrow.

FIRES.

Toronto, May 9.—A fire last night at Oshawa, Cabernet & Co.'s warehouse destroyed the stock and considerably damaged the building. Loss $25,000.

Hudson, N. Y., May 9.—The Knickerbocker Co.'s ice house, near Athens, was burned by an incendiary. Loss, $25,000.

RED LEARY.

New York, May 9.—There is a rumor that Red Leary has been captured in Maryland.

ILLEGAL DISTILLERIES.

Savannah, Ga., May 9.—Ten illicit distilleries and five copper stills have been destroyed in Elbert county.

SHOOTING BEE.

Memphis, Tenn., May 9.—Early this morning Police Officer Charles Wilson, colored, was shot by Jos. Shipway and Joseph Moon, whom he attempted to arrest for being disorderly. His wounds are not necessarily mortal. The two men were afterwards arrested.

An Important Decision.

Philadelphia, May 9.—The supreme court of Pennsylvania has just decided the second suit growing out of the suspension of Rev. Geo. H. Stuart by the general synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church for hymn singing and communicating with other evangelical churches. This decision sustains Stuart and his friends, and at the same time condemns the action of the synod and continues Rev. Dr. Stuart and the Second Reformed Presbyterian Congregation in undisputed possession of their property, which has been in litigation for the past ten years. The first suit involving similar issues was decided in like manner in favor of the Rev. Dr. McAnley and the Fifth Church, of this city, sometime ago. The opinion in both cases was delivered by Justice Gordon. Chief Justice Sharswood and Justice Trunkay dissenting.

Marine.

New York, May 9.—Arrived: The steamship Donau from Bremen and the City of Brussels from Liverpool.

Mobile, May 9.—Arrived: Steamer Columbia from New York.

San Francisco, May 9.—Arrived, steamer State of California from Philadelphia via Valparaiso.

New York, May 8.—Arrived, steamship Albatross from London; D. Steinman from Antwerp.

Meteorological.

Washington, May 9.—Indications for Tennessee and Ohio Valley: Northeast veering to southeast winds, increasing cloudiness and slightly warmer weather and stationary or falling barometer. For the lower lake region: Southeast and southwest winds, partially cloudy weather, rising possibly followed by a falling barometer and stationary or higher temperatures.

Wireless.

Secretary Sherman has returned to Washington.

The British iron clad Iron Duke is ashore at Shanghai.

UNREQUITED LOVE.

Shoots the Woman who Had Rejected Him, and Then Kills Himself.

(Buffalo Express.)

In the village of Canasraga, on the Erie Railway, a few miles beyond Portage, on Wednesday evening last, a young man named John Luce, in desperation caused by an unrequited love, shot the object of his affections, and then fired a pistol ball into his own brain. The young lady may recover, but the love-crazed youth died within a few hours after firing the fatal shot. Miss Lucy Wyman, a young woman of good family and good character, had the misfortune to kindle a spark of affection in Luce's heart, which she could not reciprocate. In answer to the young man's declaration of love Miss Wyman frankly explained her feelings and expressed a willingness to maintain friendly relations as of old. Luce was not satisfied. Early on Wednesday evening he invited the young woman to take a walk with him. They went into the outskirts of the village, and Luce again avowed his love and urged a favorable answer to his suit. He met with a very positive refusal, whereupon he took a revolver from his pocket, and fired direct at Miss Wyman. The ball entered her head. Hastening back to his own home, Luce sought his room and shot himself.

CABLEGRAMS.

Sensational Reports from Russia Denied—Church and State in France.

A Royal Commission Declares the Electric Light Too Expensive.

The Czar Issues a Proclamation Concerning the Treaty of Berlin.

RUSSIA.

THE CONDITION OF AFFAIRS. St. Petersburg, May 9.—An official statement contradicting the news published abroad with reference to affairs in Russia says:

Fort Petro Paulovskiy is wholly inadequate to contain 400 prisoners, to say nothing of 4,700, which it was stated had been removed therefrom to Kazan; that no prisoner has been removed from there to Kazan; that the reported arrests of officers have not taken place; that only three officers in all have been arrested since February, and that no arrests of whole families have been made.

GREAT BRITAIN.

AMERICAN SWINE. London, May 9.—What Lord George F. Hamilton, vice president of the council, did say in the house of commons yesterday was that he had not heard of trichina in American swine. The order of the council requiring that swine from the United States shall be slaughtered at the port of lading is in consequence of typhus.

ELECTRICITY VS. GAS.

London, May 9.—The Metropolitan board of works, after recent experiments on the Thames embankment, found that electricity cost two and a fourth pence an hour per lamp more than the best gas giving equal light. The report declares that the defects connected with electric lighting must prevent its general adoption.

SPAIN.

DUTIES. Madrid, May 9.—The civil corporations of the provinces declare that the suppression of differential duty on goods shipped in foreign bottoms has been disastrous to the Spanish mercantile navy.

Madrid, May 9.—The octroi duties on corn and flour entering Madrid have been abolished on account of the high price of provisions.

ARMY MATTERS.

The composition of the general staff of the army is fixed as follows: Four captains general, forty lieutenants general, sixty camp marshals and 160 brigadiers general.

THE EAST.

THE BERLIN TREATY. Philippopolis, May 9.—A Russian Adjutant General Obotschiff has arrived here and published the czar's proclamation promising strict compliance with the treaty of Berlin.

FRANCE.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL. Paris, May 9.—The municipal council has resolved to refuse to admit any longer free of duty articles of consumption intended for representatives of foreign countries residing in Paris. The council also decided to refer to a committee the consideration of the question of the separation of church and state.

WASHINGTON.

To-day's Proceedings in Both Houses of Congress.

Enormous Demand for the Four Percent Certificates.

Provisions of the Bill Establishing a National Board of Health.

The Senate Still Considering the Military Interference Bill.

THE FOUR PERCENTS.

Washington, May 9.—Subscriptions to the four percent refunding certificates since yesterday reaches $936,580. Owing to the demand being greater than the supply the treasury department is compelled to regulate the issue of refunding certificates to depositors. The sales in this city were getting out of all proportion to the amount of the certificates which depositors elsewhere could receive, and to-day no person was allowed to buy more than $100 in certificates.

CLARK'S SALARY.

Washington, May 9.—The committee has agreed upon a bill extending to the end of the present session the salary of the late Representative Clark.

NATIONAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

The senate committee on epidemic diseases to-day agreed upon amendments in the nature of a substitute for the bill recently committed to them concerning the national board of health and the proposed establishment of national quarantine regulations. The amendments confine the requirements of the bill to vessels coming from foreign ports where any contagious or infectious disease exists, instead of referring, as in the original bill, to vessels coming from any foreign port, and provide that the quarantine regulations framed by the national board of health shall, as far as possible, be merely supplemental to the regulations prescribed by state and municipal authorities, and be confined to them for enforcement, if they will so undertake; but, in case of refusal or failure to do so, the president may detail an officer for that purpose. The section of the bill explicitly providing authority for the board of health to establish quarantine stations on rail-road or river lines of interstate commerce, and to detain goods and passengers for disinfection, is stricken out.

The sections authorizing the same body to investigate the general subject of cattle diseases and to cause inspections to be made of all animals arriving at or exported from the different shipping posts in the United States are also omitted from the amendment. The measure and amount of the appropriation asked by the original bill for the expenditures by the national board of health to carry out its provisions is reduced from $650,000 to $500,000.

THE BRADEN BILL.

Washington, May 8.—There was a sharp discussion in the senate to-day over McDonald's bill to commission young Braden, of Indianapolis, as an ensign in the navy. Half a dozen senators warmly opposed the measure, taking the ground that it was unjust to our midshipmen at the naval academy, and especially to nine young men who were passed midshipmen and were only waiting for vacancies to occur to receive commissions as ensigns. If the bill passed Braden would rank them all. It also transpired that Braden's naval education in England would have entitled him to a place only as a warrant officer and not to rank as a commissioned officer. Opposition to the measure on naval circles is so active that it is doubtful whether the bill can pass, although both McDonald and Voorhees, who usually hunt in couples, have been indefatigable in their personal efforts in Braden's behalf. It is not thought that there would be any opposition to providing for Braden's appointment as an ensign after passing the regular examination at the naval academy with the present graduating class which is now at sea.

CONGRESSIONAL SENATE.

Washington, May 9.—The house bill providing for the payment of money heretofore appropriated to Jas. B. Eads and his associates, for the construction of jetties and other work at the mouth of the Mississippi, was passed with amendments.

Consideration of the bill prohibiting military interference at elections was then resumed.

HOUSE.

A bill reported from the judiciary committee to remove the political disabilities of J. C. Pemberton, of Philadelphia, gave rise to an amusing colloquy between Conger and Cox, which Knott cut short by moving the previous question, and the bill passed.

Sculling Race.

Worcester, May 9.—The scullers race for the championship, between Livingstone of Yale and Goddard of Harvard, will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

CRIME & CASUALTY.

Disorder and Violence in the Indiana Mining District.

Further Developments of Adventist Fanaticism in Massachusetts.

MINING TROUBLES.

Brazil, Ind., May 9.—The mining trouble is not over yet. Last night J. W. Bisher, a miner, was stopped by three masked men with a rope, who threatened to hang him if he did not quit work. He agreed.

They also shot through the windows of Wm. Elder's house in Stringtown, but did no damage to any person.

The strikers have notified several men to stop work or they would be killed. They say Elder must die.

Some persons entered the house of an old man working for Niblack and robbed him of all his provisions. Everything quiet to-day.

MORE ADVENT FANATICISM.

Cohasset Narrows, Mass., May 9.—The Adventist minister, Charles Brown, is announced to address the Cohasset Adventists on Sunday. The people threaten to tar and feather and ride him on a rail.

Davis, another Advent preacher, met four young men in the road near his house yesterday, drew a knife and cut up their nets and forbade them to go near his house. The people are excited.

THE SANGUINARY PENCIL PUSHER.

Indianapolis, May 8.—George C. Harding, the editor of the Herald, who attempted to assassinate Col. Light, of the Times, is still in the county jail. His bail was fixed at $4,000 to-day. Several physicians have visited him during the past two days, and have agreed that he is suffering from mental derangement. It is thought that he will be committed to the hospital for insane to-morrow.

FIRE.

Toronto, May 9.—A fire last night at Oshawa, Cabernet & Co.'s warehouse destroyed the stock and considerably damaged the building. Loss $25,000.

Hudson, N. Y., May 9.—The Knickerbocker Co.'s ice house, near Athens, was burned by an incendiary. Loss, $25,000.

RED LEARY.

New York, May 9.—There is a rumor that Red Leary has been captured in Maryland.

ILLICIT DISTILLERIES.

Savannah, Ga., May 9.—Ten illicit distilleries and five copper stills have been destroyed in Elbert county.

SHOOTING BEE.

Memphis, Tenn., May 9.—Early this morning Police Officer Charles Wilson, colored, was shot by Jos. Shipway and Joseph Moon, whom he attempted to arrest for being disorderly. His wounds are not necessarily mortal. The two men were afterwards arrested.

An Important Decision.

Philadelphia, May 9.—The supreme court of Pennsylvania has just decided the second suit growing out of the suspension of Rev. Geo. H. Stuart by the general synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church for hymnsinging and communing with other evangelical churches. This decision sustains Stuart and his friends, and at the same time condemns the action of the synod and continues Rev. Dr. Stuart and the Second Reformed Presbyterian Congregation in undisputed possession of their property, which has been in litigation for the past ten years. The first suit involving similar issues was decided in like manner in favor of the Rev. Dr. McAuley and the Fifth Church, of this city, sometime ago. The opinion in both cases was delivered by Justice Gordon. Chief Justice Sharswood and Justice Trunkie dissenting.

Marine.

New York, May 9.—Arrived: The steamship Donau from Bremen and the City of Brussels from Liverpool.

Mobile, May 9.—Arrived: Steamer Columbia from New York.

San Francisco, May 9.—Arrived, steamer State of California from Philadelphia via Valparaiso.

New York, May 8.—Arrived, steamer ship Alsatia from London; D. Steinman from Antwerp.

Metropolitan.

Washington, May 9.—Indications for Tennessee and Ohio Valley: Northeast veering to southeast winds, increasing cloudiness and slightly warmer weather and stationary or falling barometer. For the lower lake region: Southeast and southwest winds, partially cloudy weather, rising possibly followed by a falling barometer and stationary or higher temperatures.

Wireless.

Secretary Sherman has returned to Washington.

The British iron clad Iron Duke is ashore at Shanghai.

UNREQUITED LOVE.

Shoots the Woman who Had Rejected Him, and Then Kills Himself. (Buffalo Express.)

and then fired a pistol ball into his own brain. The young lady may recover, but the love-crazed youth died within a few hours after firing the fatal shot. Miss Lucy Wyman, a young woman of good family and good character, had the misfortune to kill a spark of affection in Luce's heart, which she could not reciprocate. In answer to the young man's declaration of love Miss Wyman frankly explained her feelings and expressed a willingness to maintain friendly relations as of old. Luce was not satisfied. Early on Wednesday evening he invited the young woman to take a walk with him. They went into the outskirts of the village, and Luce again avowed his love and urged a favorable answer to his suit. He met with a very positive refusal, whereupon he took a revolver from his pocket, and fired direct at Miss Wyman. The ball entered her head. Hastening back to his own home, Luce sought his room and shot himself.

The SENTINEL is delivered quite late in some parts of the city just now, but within a few days all subscribers will receive their papers in good time.

that a veto would make an issue before the people upon which the democrats would sweep the country. But it is evident that Mr. HAYES and his advisers are afraid to invite this issue, and that this bill will be promptly signed.

A TELEGRAM from Chicago was printed in yesterday's SENTINEL, announcing that a general strike is to be inaugurated in the country on the 5th of July, to embrace among its participants members of all trades. The socialists of Chicago, who profess to be at the bottom of this movement, say that they will first demand eight hours a day, and when that is granted they will have other demands to make. They also say that the movement is largely political in its nature. We have no doubt that such a strike is contemplated by the Chicago socialists, but we do not believe that they can get the working men and mechanics of this country into it. There could be no other result of such an undertaking than general demoralization and distress, a paralysis of all business and universal suffering. Times are already but slowly improving, the democratic party is again getting control of the country, and it is certain that the class legislation which has so long cursed the land will cease, and that the government will again be administered in the interests of all the people. No good, but much harm, would come from the proposed strike, and it is to be hoped, for the sake of everybody, that it will not be undertaken.

HARDING.

The Prosecution Which Caused the Death of Desperation.

(Indianapolis Special to the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

The trouble between Harding and Light has existed since early in 1877, and at rare intervals the Herold has referred to the latter in uncompromising terms. Some weeks ago a triangular fight broke out, waged by Sol. Hathaway, Alvah M. Smith and Light through the columns of the Democrat, and Harding in the Herold; and the latter did the roughest bit of skinning of his life in reference to the above named parties. They came back in savage style, but about this time Mr. Harding left for Hot Springs, where he remained until ten days ago. The day he left the Democrat contained a viciously indignant innuendo that Mr. Harding had worked the ruin of his own daughter and changed the crime upon another to shelter himself, a most foul, inhuman accusation, from the knowledge of which publication Mr. Harding was spared until Friday last, when it was shown to him by one of his enemies connected with the Democrat had been within reach there would have been a tragedy. To his aged father he remarked, "My God, this is awful; I cannot live under such an imputation," and he sought to tear himself away that the night would hunt up the author. His father, however, clung to him and succeeded in exacting a promise that he would not shoot his trauder, but nothing that was said or done could make Harding forego the determination to seek out Light and demand a retraction. That he did not find Light prior to Sunday evening, and then found him at his residence, is due most likely that Mr. Light is seldom upon the street, and that he attempted his life when he found him, is no surprise to those who know how sacred to Harding is the memory of Flora, his daughter, whose life was wrecked in early womanhood. She was an only daughter by a former wife, and when there came a separation between father and mother she clung to the former with rare devotion. Then came the despoiler in the person of Sol. Moritz; shame and sorrow as a natural consequence, and in the agony of her desperation she swallowed a dose of poison and died in the arms of her father, forgiven and blessed by him. This was in August, 1874, and the attempt of Mr. Harding to kill Moritz and the sympathy showered upon him in his terrible bereavement by the whole community is still in distinct remembrance.

From the shock of his loved one's death he has never recovered, and his family and friends have noticed with alarm that at times it affected his mental equilibrium. Of late years he often complained of brain trouble, and numerous visits to the Hot Springs seemed only to give him relief.

This morning Mr. Harding came part of the way down town with Mr. J. H. Woodard, to whom he related the circumstances of his visit Sunday night to the house of Light. He was incoherent in his talk, and said that his whole life had grown into his dead daughter, and that he could not live under the infamous charge which Light had printed that he ruined her. His manner was wild and disconnected, but the one thing of his talk was the wrong done him and his daughter.

Mr. Woodard tried to induce him to return home, but failed, and left him as he entered the pawn shop, which is directly beneath the Democrat office, in Miller's block.

Previous to the shooting Mr. Woodard informed our reporter of his walk with Harding, and stated that he considered him dangerously insane.

As might be expected, the prominence of Mr. Harding and the attempts which he has made upon the life of Light excites a greater local interest than even the Garden-Hurricane fiasco, and it is the all-absorbing theme.

Last night Mr. Harding occupied Tate's old quarters in the jail and was resting quietly, the attendant physicians having got him under the influence of opiates. It should be stated that Light denies writing the obnoxious matter in the Democrat which incensed Harding to his present mood.

but credits it to Mr. Hathaway, who contributes occasionally to that paper. No matter who is the author, it is extremely unfortunate, and is liable to work further mischief.

Parties who have ordered the SENTINEL and have failed to receive it will confer a favor by reporting at the office.

Safety, efficiency and reliability are the three cardinal virtues of a remedy, whether in the hands of a physician or in those of the people at large. For the cure of all malarial diseases, such as chills and fever, or intermittent fever, dumb chills and chronic enlargement of the spleen, we have such a remedy in Dr. F. Wilhoit's Anti-Periodic or Fever and Ague Tonic, the composition of which has been published by its proprietors, Wheelock, Finlay & Co., of New Orleans, and is approved by the medical profession, and for sale by all druggists.

The DAILY SENTINEL only 25 cents per month; containing full telegraphic and local news, market reports, interesting literary selections and miscellany, etc.

Tilden and Edgerton.

(Kendallville News.)

J. K. Edgerton's letters to the Fort Wayne SENTINEL make no serious charges against Gov. Tilden; neither will they convince the public that he is not a proper candidate for the presidency. OFFICIAL PAPER—CITY AND COUNTY.

Publication Office—New Sentinel Building, No. 107 Calhoun St., Fort Wayne, Ind.

TERMS TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Daily, 25c a month; Weekly, 1 year, $1.50; Single copies, 2 cents; Weekly, 6 mos., .75.

Congressional Summary.

Thursday, May 8.—SENATE.—Consideration was resumed of the bill preventing military interference at the polls, and Mr. Morgan spoke in favor of the HOUSE. The bill to enforce the eight-hour law was taken up, and after discussion was laid on the table. The silver bill was taken up and brought on a lively debate, participated in by Messrs. Kelly, Fisher, Knobel, Warner and Chittenden. Pending discussion the house adjourned.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The immense increase in the circulation of THE SENTINEL during the past few days has necessitated an entire reorganization of the routes, the employment of several new carriers, etc. In placing so many new names upon our lists there has been unavoidable confusion, and as a consequence many of our subscribers have been misled. We must therefore beg the indulgence of our patrons for a few days. We shall be obliged if any failure to promptly and regularly deliver the SENTINEL will be reported at once to the office or to the city circulator.

OLNEY NEWELL, of Lebanon, Boone county, is a candidate for superintendent of the blind asylum. Mr. NEWELL is a very talented young man, and is well qualified for this position, having had several years' experience in this institution. He is a staunch democrat, and his appointment would, we are sure, give general satisfaction.

THE council should use great care in selecting a board of health. The board should consist of three good physicians who will attend to the duties of their position, and will hold a meeting at least once a year. There should be three men who will work together harmoniously and who will at least earn their $75 a year. By all means, let us have an efficient board of health.

The Associated Press seems to be "booming" for JOHN SHERMAN. Every movement of the finance minister is chronicled in the press telegrams, and all of his goings and comings are promptly recorded. HAYES is for SHERMAN; HAYES runs WILLIAM HENRY SMITH, and WILLIAM HENRY SMITH runs the Western Associated Press. All of which accounts for the milk in the cocoanut.

It is becoming evident that the race for the republican presidential nomination next year will be between GRANT and JOHN SHERMAN. The capitalists and corporations of the country are as friendly to one as to the other, and SHERMAN has the advantage of all the administrative patronage. On the other hand, GRANT has most of the rings on his side, and will receive powerful aid from BLAINE and CONKLING and their supporters. It will be a close race, but GRANT will probably win.

THE semi-official announcement comes from Washington that Mr. HAYES will sign the military interference bill. He can hardly do otherwise, without taking a step which would produce a perfect torrent of indignation. For the good of the country it is to be hoped that Mr. HAYES will promptly sign the bill, although the democrats from a purely partisan standpoint, could not but reap great advantage from a veto. The bill is so carefully worded, so simple and so explicit in its provisions, that a veto would make an issue before the people upon which the democrats would sweep the country. But it is evident that Mr. HAYES and his advisers are afraid to invite this issue, and that this bill will be promptly signed.

A TELEGRAM from Chicago was printed in yesterday's SENTINEL, announcing that a general strike is to be inaugurated in the country on the 5th of July, to embrace among its participants members of all trades. The socialists of Chicago, who profess to be at the bottom of this movement, say that they will first demand eight hours a day, and when that is granted they will have other demands to make. They also say that the movement is largely political in its nature. We have no doubt that such a strike is contemplated by the Chicago socialists, but we do not believe that they can get the working men and mechanics of this country into it. There could be no other result of such an undertaking than general demoralization and distress, a paralysis of all business and universal suffering. Times are already but slowly improving, the democratic party is again getting control of the country, and it is certain that the class legislation which has so long cursed the land will cease, and that the government will again be administered in the interests of all the people. No good, but much harm, would come from the proposed strike, and it is to be hoped, for the sake of everybody, that it will not be undertaken.

HARDING.

The Proclamation Which Caused the Deeds of Desperation.

(Indianapolis specially to the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

The trouble between Harding and Light has existed since early in 1877, and at rare intervals the Herald has referred to the latter in uncompromising terms. Some weeks ago a triangular fight broke out, waged by Sol. Hathaway, Alvah M. Smith and Light through the columns of the Democrat, and Harding in the Herald; and the latter did the roughest bit of skinning of his life in reference to the above named parties. They came back in savage style, but about this time Mr. Harding left for Hot Springs, where he remained until ten days ago. The day he left the Democrat contained a viciously indignant innuendo that Mr. Harding had worked the ruin of his own daughter and charged the crime upon another to shelter himself, a most foul, inhuman accusation, from the knowledge of which publication Mr. Harding was spared until Friday last, when it was shown to him by some inconsiderate friend. He acted like one beside himself, and if either of his enemies connected with the Democrat had been within reach there would have been a tragedy. To his aged father he remarked, "My God, this is awful; I can not live under such an imputation," and he sought to tear himself away that he might at once hunt up the author. His father, however, clung to him and succeeded in exacting a promise that he would not shoot his trucebreaker, but nothing that was said or done could make Harding forego the determination to seek out Light and demand a retraction. That he did not find Light prior to Sunday evening, and then found him at his residence, is due most likely to Mr. Light's seldom upon the street, and that he attempted his life when he found him, is no surprise to those who know how sacred to Harding is the memory of Flora, his daughter, whose life was wrecked in early womanhood. She was an only daughter by a former wife, and when there came a separation between father and mother she clung to the former with rare devotion. Then came the depolarizer in the person of Sol. Moritz; shame and sorrow as a natural consequence, and in the agony of her desperation she swallowed a dose of poison and died in the arms of her father, forgiven and blessed by him. This was in August, 1874, and the attempt of Mr. Harding to kill Moritz and the sympathy showered upon him in his terrible bereavement by the whole community is still in distinct remembrance.

From the shock of his loved one's death he has never recovered, and his family and friends have noticed with alarm that at times it affected his mental equilibrium. Of late years he has often complained of brain trouble, and numerous visits to the Hot Springs seemed only to give him relief.

This morning Mr. Harding came part of the way down town with Mr. J. H. Woodard, to whom he related the circumstances of his visit Sunday night to the house of Light. He was incoherent in his talk, and said that his whole life had grown into his dead daughter, and that he could not live under the infamous charge which Light had printed that he ruined her. His manner was wild and disconnected, but the one thing of his talk was the wrong done him and his daughter. Mr. Woodard tried to induce him to return home, but failed, and left him as he entered the pawn shop, which is directly beneath the Democrat office, in Miller's block.

Previous to the shooting Mr. Woodard informed your reporter of his walk with Harding, and stated that he considered him dangerously insane.

As might be expected, the prominence of Mr. Harding, and the attempts which he has made upon the life of Light excites a greater local interest than even the Garcon-Harrington fiasco, and it is the all-absorbing theme.

Last night Mr. Harding occupied Tate's old quarters in the jail and was resting quietly, the attendant physicians having got him under the influence of opiates. It should be stated that Light denies writing the obnoxious matter in the Democrat which incensed Harding to his present mood.

but credit it to Mr. Hathaway, who is habitually so partial to that paper. No matter who is the author, it is extremely unfortunate, and is liable to work further mischief.

FORETELLING HIS DEATH.

An Arkansas Farmer Who Predicted His Own Fate Accurately.

(Little Rock Gazette.)

A singular death occurred out on the Mt. Ida road, ten miles from town, several days ago. A farmer, whose name we were unable to learn, predicted that he would die on a certain day. His friends, and particularly his wife, remonstrated with him, assuring him that he had no foundation for such a belief. He disregarded all entreaty, however, and clinging with peculiar, almost obstinate, tenacity to his belief in his death on the day predicted. After a time he seemed to forget, or rather disregard, his peculiar notion, and his friends thought no more concerning the prediction, only wondering why the man should assume the role of a death-telling prophet.

Finally the day on which the man said he should die arrived. No change occurred in his physical condition, but he began working as usual. About 11 o'clock he entered the house and remarked to his wife that he felt sick, and complained that his feet were cold. Pulling off his shoes he sat by the fire and held out his feet. Turning to his wife, he said:

"I am going to die just as I told you."

His wife begged him not to speak so, but he persisted in his belief.

"I am dying now," said he. "Death has begun at my feet and is creeping toward my head."

The woman assisted him to the bed. Undressing, he lay down, and when his wife went out and returned with an armful of wood, he was dead.

Tilden and Edgerton.

(Kendallville News.)

J. K. Edgerton's letters to the Fort Wayne SENTINEL make no serious charges against Gov. Tilden; neither will they convince the public that he is not a proper candidate for the presidency. Mr. Edgerton is well aware of the fact that it was Gov. Tilden's record that carried the democracy to victory in 1876, and the party could never have one without just such a man.

There always will be a difference of opinions upon these obscure points, but we must confess, the pleasant side of the argument is with Cook.

DR. JAMES' RHEUMATISM PILLS.
The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, in cases of AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

A TORPID LIVER
is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Diarrhea, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc. It is a powerful influence on the Liver and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The mildness with which persons take on flesh, and the influence of these pills of itself indicates their benignity to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, weakness of the stomach, flatulency of the liver, bilious constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.
Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is recent, a single dose of TOTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one will be taken every night, and a regular daily medicine will be required.

Sold Everywhere. 25 Cents.
OFFICE, 35 MURRAY ST., NEW YORK.

SICK HEADACHE
CARTER'S LIVER PILLS.

These pills are sold by all druggists and are the only reliable remedy for Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, etc.

A BIG INSTITUTION.

What a Stranger Has to Say of a Leading Fort Wayne Enterprise. (Bluffton Banner.)

While in Fort Wayne last week we called at the large and mammoth furniture store of F. Flegner, situated at No. 19 East Main street, and took a careful look through his building. He has one of the most complete stores, in his line, in the city, and we might add, in Indiana. He does not buy cheap goods from the east and palm them off at high prices, but manufactures everything himself, and sells them at prices that are astonishingly low. He employs none but skilled workmen, and guarantees all his goods. If they are not as he represents them, the purchaser can return them at his expense and secure his money. His chamber sets, parlor sets and book cases are the finest we have ever examined, and to look at them alone will pay for a visit to his establishment. Mr. Flegner is well known to many of our citizens, and is polite, social and entertaining, and a very pleasant man to deal with. His advertisement can be found in another column, and we invite a careful perusal.

Of Interest to Everybody.

"Who was that handsome man that attracted so much attention at the Academy the other evening," asked a lady, a day or two since.

"Pshaw, he's not handsome, if he did attract attention. He's positively ugly when you come to look at him."

"Why did every body admire him so then?"

"That is not hard to explain. He was dressed in the latest style, and the best of tastes. His new spring suit fit him exactly, and was made up in a neat manner. Of course he got them of A. Foster, the leading merchant tailor of the city, No. 21 Calhoun street."

It is of interest to everybody to know that A. Foster is making clothes this year at prices that can't be bent. He has long been considered the Leading Fashionable Merchant Tailor of the city, and at the same time it is known that he makes clothes so cheap that anyone can afford to be well dressed. A plain man looks handsome in one of Foster's stylish, close fitting suits.

Storage.

Stores called for, stored, polished, and put up in the fall by leaving orders with Frank Stopflet, 18 West Columbia street.

FRUIT HOUSE.

Dress Goods—All wool yard wide Black Cashmere for 38 cents, at J. Pier's.

Headquarters for the "Pony" cigar, corner of Barr and Berry streets.

Geo. Reiter, the "Pony" man, has removed to the corner of Barr and Berry streets, where he will be happy to meet all his old friends.

I wish to announce to my many patrons and friends that I have refitted my place of business, No. 20 Clinton street, in first-class style, and it is now pronounced the finest place in the city. I have on hand the best of liquors, such as O. F. C. Taylor's sour mash, and as general assortment as can be had in the market. Call at the Office Sample Room and satisfy yourself. A. LORIER, Prop.

$38 will buy the finest silver-plated Reservoir Cook Stove in the world, weighing 485 pounds, with 50 pieces of furniture. Regular price, $60. A. D. BRANDRIFF & Co.

Don't forget that Geo. Reiter, the "Pony" man, can hereafter be found at the corner of Barr and Berry streets.

Splendid line of Beige's Pongees, Silk and Wool Bourgettes Dress Goods from 15c to $1. Elegant assortment at J. Pier's.

Sugars and Coffee Down.

Best A sugar 8c; coffee C, 7c.

New Orleans sugar, 6c.

Good Rio coffee, 10c; best, 15c.

Old government Java, 23c.

FRUIT HOUSE.

On Broadway, New York, the great thoroughfare, a prominent feature of even that famous street, convenient to all places of interest, and noted for its luxurious appointments—is situated the Grand Central Hotel, which is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards, per day. An elegant restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets, select styles and various new designs, at J. Pier's.

Geo. Reiter, the "Pony" man, removed to the corner of Barr and Berry streets.

FIVE CENTS.

Where the Nickels Can Be Used to Good Advantage.

In these hard times every 5-cent piece counts, and it is the part of wisdom and prudence to study where each nickel can be used to the best advantage. Messrs. Geo. DeWald & Co., the old established and reliable dry goods merchants at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets, have undertaken to solve this problem, for the benefit of the public generally, and are succeeding admirably. They have established a 5-cent counter, upon which is displayed a large variety of useful, valuable and ornamental articles which are offered at 5 cents each. It would take a column to give a list of these articles which include almost everything that could be thought of. It would surprise any one who has not inspected this counter to learn how far a 5-cent piece will go. Go and see.

Milinery.

An elegant assortment of newshape for ladies, misses and children, just received at Low's, 11 Columbia street.

Chicago Best

At Rich & Bro.'s, 17 West Berry street.

A Word to the Ladies.

The numerous lady readers of the SENTINEL will be interested to know that the old established and popular milliner, Mrs. Mary B. Shilling is now displaying the largest, finest and most attractive assortment of millinery goods to be found in the city. As usual she is ahead of all others in the way of the latest styles, and all the new novelties of every description. We advise the ladies to call upon Miss Shilling at once and make a careful examination of her stock and learn the great bargains she is offering. Don't forget the place, No. 81 East Main street.

Grand Dental Opening.

Dr. G. W. Loag is now opening the finest dental parlors in the city at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets, over Mayer & Graff's jewelry store, opposite his old location. Dr. Loag will throw these parlors open to the public inspection on Saturday afternoon and evening at which time he will be glad to see all his old friends and customers, and the public generally.

The "Pony," the best 10 cent cigar in the city, manufactured and sold at the corner of Barr and Berry streets.

Do you wish to save money in buying Table Linens, Towels or Napkins? Then go to J. Pier's. He sells them cheaper than any other house in the city.

Something New.

Go and see the gasoline cooking stoves at Ash's. They are perfectly safe, clean and very powerful. You can wash, bake, iron, and in fact do everything you can do on a wood or coal stove, and have no heat from it.

Sickening Accident.

The terrible accident in the Tremont House elevator was one of the most sickening on record, and the details are perfectly horrible. Something should be done to avoid such terrible and frightful occurrences. It should also be remembered that the Old Pioneer Boot and Shoe firm of E. Vordermark & Son, at the sign of the Big Red Boot, No. 32 Calhoun street, are still in the field, and that they have the largest assortment of boots and shoes ever displayed in Fort Wayne. Their facilities for buying are such that they can, in the future as in the past, undersell all competitors. Don't fail to go and see E. Vordermark & Son's immense stock before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the Sign of the Big Red Boot, No. 32 Calhoun street.

The best assortment of Infants' Caps can be found at J. Pier's.

$14 will buy a good 8-inch Cook Stove weighing 300 pounds, with 52 pieces of first-class trimmings, at A. D. BRANDRIFF & Co.'s.

Smoke only the "Pony" cigar.

THE RAILROADS.

Five hundred tons of steel rails have been received at Kendallville, to be laid along the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad.

Many improvements are being made at Rome City, the popular summer resort on the G. & L. R. R. Two thousand feet of two-inch pipe have been laid from the water tank to the island, where there is a stand-pipe. Water is pumped into the stand-pipe by a small steam engine, and fountains are being provided in different parts of the island. Two steamers and forty small boats will ply on the lake. A new hotel is being erected, and other improvements are being made, which will render Rome City more popular than ever. At Petoskey substantial improvements are also being made. A large addition is being put on to the leading hotel, and other facilities being provided for pleasure seekers.

The Christian Church.

The Christian Church at the corner of West Jefferson and Griffith streets, has just undergone extensive repairs and improvements. The ceiling has been lowered and elaborately frescoed, the auditorium repainted throughout, new seats provided, etc., etc. The interior would hardly be recognized by the regular attendants upon the church. It will be reopened on Sunday, and Elder L. L. Carpenter will preach both morning and evening.

A Card of Thanks.

To the Editor of the Sentinel: Allow me, through your widely-circulated journal, to return my hearty thanks to the voters of all parties who so generously supported me with their votes last Tuesday. In return for this mark of confidence I promise to make as good and efficient an officer as lies in my power.

BESTIALITY.

Shocking Developments at Police Court—The Neither Side of Fort Wayne Life—The Hopeless Gravity of a Girl of Sixteen.

The neither side of Fort Wayne life was forcibly illustrated this morning at Police court, in the case of a girl not over sixteen years of age, named Mamie Price, who was arraigned on a charge of vagrancy, who hailed from Van Wert. Notwithstanding her recent career of debauchery and exposure, the girl is still good-looking. She pleaded guilty to the charge but asked leave to make a statement in mitigation, upon the strength of which the mayor discharged her.

From her statement in court and from other sources it is gathered that the girl's home is in Van Wert, where her mother lives, her father being dead. Some time since she obtained a place as servant at Van Wert, and while thus engaged she asserts that she was seduced under promise of marriage. When coming events began to cast their shadows her seducer offered to marry her but she claims that her mother refused permission. An abortion was produced upon her, and last Monday she came to this city to visit relatives who are very respectable people. She stayed at their house on Monday night. Since Tuesday morning she has been roaming about the city and some of the details of her life are too filthy for publication. She fell into the company of a number of two-legged beasts who infest this community, whose conduct with her staggers description. On Wednesday night she says she remained in a caboose in the railroad yard in which twelve men slept. Yesterday morning she went out to the woods near the organ factory, where she remained all day, entertaining half a dozen or more depraved specimens of the male sex. She was pined with wine and whisky during the day, and was found last evening by a peeler in a drunken stupor, and taken to the station house. She promised his honor to return to Van Wert and reform, and was discharged upon condition of leaving town at once. It is evident that the girl is totally depraved, and it seems that, notwithstanding her tender age, the case is a hopeless one.

BREVITIES.

The superior court was not in session to-day.

There are no new developments in the Elbert case.

The SENTINEL is now delivered to the remotest parts of the city.

The SENTINEL, only 25 cents a month; cheapest daily paper in the country.

Marriage licenses: William Laughan and Francis Gustin; Conrad Daelel and Minnie Elia.

Hon. R. C. Bell returned home last night, having been engaged for several days in the trial of an important case at Columbia City.

J. S. Burkholder, whose furniture factory was burned down last winter, has opened a new factory on Water street, where he employs fifteen men.

The New Haven town election resulted as follows: Trustees, Jos. Stark, John B. Reaker; clerk, Bernard Dowling; treasurer, H. H. Schnelker; marshal, Ed. Keefe.

Several city clergymen went to Rome City to-day to meet clergymen from along the line of the G. & L. R. R., who are in session there, arranging for the holding of a grand Sunday school congress in June at that place.

Richard Blake, whose body was found at Bluffton yesterday, died from the effects of a fall on Wednesday night while he was intoxicated. He was forty years old and formerly hailed from this city, where he has relatives living.

Hiram Littleman, a member of the Omaha suit, was handed in by the police last night. At the mayor's court this morning he asked only fifteen minutes in which to get out of town. His honor granted that boon readily, and the Littleman walked off in a very happy frame of mind.

THE COURTS.

CIRCUIT. PROBATE.

Abraham Wolf vs. estate of Wm. Shultz, allowance $62.19. Abraham Wolf vs. estate of Mathias Strodel, allowance $57.52. Abraham Wolf vs. estate of Geo. W. Robinson, allowance $35.82.

SUPERIOR.

NEW SUIT.

Ochnig Wiley et al vs. City of Fort Wayne, $300.

POLICE.

James Horrigan, chronic drunkard, 55 days in jail; Hiram Littleman, same charge, ordered to leave town; Mamie Price, drunkenness and vagrancy, discharged.

The Horrible Harrigan.

Jim Harrigan is irrepressible. Yesterday morning he was before the mayor and that dignitary discharged him upon his promise that he would leave the city at once and not show up again until after the heated term. Jim did not keep his word, and when the evening shadows began to thicken he was again in the familiar cell at the station house. This morning the mayor beamed upon him, and gave him fifty-five days in jail, which will take him over the best end of the watering place season.

Infidelity on a Canal Boat.

This afternoon Anna Dolman applied in the circuit court for a divorce from Thomas Dolman, to whom she was married in 1875. She says that she has always been a first-class wife in every respect, but that he has treated her inhumanly, knocking her down, beating her, calling her a strumpet, etc. On the 6th of May she says he beat and wounded her so badly that she had to go to bed and send for a doctor. He also threatened to kill her. The court granted an order, to hold until June 1st, restraining the defendant from disposing of his canal boat and two mules.

The Auditor's Office.

A SENTINEL reporter dropped in at the auditor's office to day and found our good looking and genial auditor, M. E. Argo, in the best of spirits over some much-needed improvements which he has just made in the interior of the office, materially increasing his facilities and conveniences for doing business. New pigeon holes, book racks and shelving have been put in, providing places for the large number of books and records which have accumulated. Under Mr. Argo's management the business of the auditor's office is so thoroughly systematized that it works like a machine. As the SENTINEL predicted, Mr. Argo is making one of the most efficient and popular auditors Allen county ever had.

Fearful Accident.

Last evening a little daughter of Allen Spatch, aged thirteen months, fell from a second story window of his house, No. 154 Holman street, and fractured her skull. She was unconscious all of last night, but some hope is now entertained of her recovery.

Ingersoll on Laughter.

No day can be so holy but what the laugh of a child will make it holier still. Strike with the hand of fire, oh, weird musician, thy harp strung with Apollo's golden hair. Fill the vast cathedral aisles with symphonies sweet and dim, deft touches of the organ's keys; blow, bugler, blow, until thy silver notes do touch and kiss the moonlit waves and charm the lovers wandering 'mid the vine clad hills. But know your sweetest strains are discords all compared with childhood's happy laugh—the laugh that fills the eyes with light and hearts with joy. O, rippling river of laughter; thou art the blessed boundary line between the beasts and men, and every wayward wave of thine doth drown some fretful fend of care. O, laughter, rose-lipped daughter of joy, there are dingles in thy cheeks to catch and glorify all the tears of grief.

Splitting the Difference.

(Detroit Free Press.)

A young man with the bluish of country life on his cheeks sold out his produce on the market yesterday and entered a shoe store and said he wanted a pair of shoes for his wife.

"What number?" asked the clerk.

The young husband scratched his head, looked very much embarrassed, and finally said:

"Well, I've been married eight months, but this shoe business stumps me. I don't hardly believe she wears 'levens, and I don't think she kin git into fives. I guess if we split the difference we'll hit her pretty close."

He was given a pair of eights, and after squinting along the soles he observed:

"I guess them'll do. She's awful proud, and I know she'll squeeze into them for all she's worth."

Leave your names for the DAILY SENTINEL at the office, No. 107 Calhoun street. The best paper in the city; only 25 cents per month.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The circulation of the "Sentinel" is increasing so rapidly that it is necessary to go to press at a somewhat earlier hour than formerly in order to deliver the paper in all parts of the city at a proper hour. We will therefore regard it as a great favor if our advertising patrons will hand in their favors of every description at as early an hour as possible. In no case will display advertisements or changes be received after 10 a. m. for insertion the same day, and we should like to have them as much earlier than that as possible. It is needless to suggest that our advertising patrons are as much interested as ourselves in the prompt and faithful delivery of the "Sentinel."

A BIG INSTITUTION.
What a Stranger Has to Say of a Leading Fort Wayne Enterprise.
(Bluffton Banner.)

While in Fort Wayne last week we called at the large and mammoth furniture store of F. Fliegner, situated at No. 19 East Main street, and took a careful look through his building. He has one of the most complete stores, in his line, in the city, and we might add, in Indiana. He does not buy cheap goods from the east and palm them off at high prices, but manufactures everything himself, and sells them at prices that are astonishingly low. He employs none but skilled workmen, and guarantees all his goods. If they are not as he represents them, the purchaser can return them at his expense and secure his money. His chamber sets, parlor sets and book cases are the finest we have ever examined, and to look at them alone will pay for a visit to his establishment. Mr. Fliegner is well known to many of our citizens, and is polite, social and entertaining, and a very pleasant man to deal with. His advertisement can be found in another column, and we invite a careful perusal.

Of Interest to Everybody.

"Who was that handsome man that attracted so much attention at the Academy the other evening," asked a lady, a day or two since.

"Pshaw, he's not handsome, if he did attract attention. He's positively ugly when you come to look at him."

"Why did every body admire him so then?"

"That is not hard to explain. He was dressed in the latest style, and the best of tastes. His new spring suit fit him exactly, and was made up in a neat manner. Of course he got them of A. Foster, the leading merchant tailor of the city, No. 21 Calhoun street."

It is of interest to everybody to know that A. Foster is making clothes this year at prices that can't be beat. He has long been considered the Leading Fashionable Merchant Tailor of the city, and at the same time it is known that he makes clothes so cheap that anyone can afford to be well dressed. A plain man looks handsome in one of Foster's stylish, close fitting suits.

FRUIT HOUSE.

On Broadway, New York, the great thoroughfare, a prominent feature of even that famous street, convenient to all places of interest, and noted for its luxurious appointments, is situated the Grand Central Hotel, which is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards, per day. An elegant restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets, select styles and various new designs, at J. Pierr's.

Geo. Reiter, the "Pony" man, removed to the corner of Barr and Berry streets.

FIVE CENTS.

Where the Nickels Can Be Used to Good Advantage.

In these hard times every 5-cent piece counts, and it is the part of wisdom and prudence to study where each nickel can be used to the best advantage. Messrs. Geo. DeWald & Co., the old established and reliable dry goods merchants at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets, have undertaken to solve this problem, for the benefit of the public generally, and are succeeding admirably. They have established a 5-cent counter, upon which is displayed a large variety of useful, valuable and ornamental articles which are offered at 5 cents each. It would take a column to give a list of these articles which include almost everything that could be thought of. It would surprise any one who has not inspected this counter to learn how far a 5-cent piece will go. Go and see.

Millinery.
An elegant assortment of newshape for ladies, misses and children, just received at Low's, 11 Columbia street.

Chicago Beat.
At Rich & Bro's, 17 West Berry street.

A Word to the Ladies.
The numerous lady readers of the SENTINEL will be interested to know that the old established and popular milliner, Mrs. Mary B. Shilling is now displaying the largest, finest and most attractive assortment of millinery goods to be found in the city. As usual she is ahead of all others in the way of the latest styles, and all the new novelties of every description. We advise the Ladies to call upon Miss Shilling at once and make a careful examination of her stock and learn the great bargains she is offering. Don't forget the place, No. 31 East Main street.

Grand Dental Opening.
Dr. G. W. Loag is now opening the finest dental parlors in the city at the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets, over Mayer & Graffe's jewelry store, opposite his old location. Dr. Loag will throw these parlors open to the public inspection on Saturday afternoon and evening at which time he will be glad to see all his old friends and customers, and the public generally.

The "Pony," the best 10 cent cigar in the city, manufactured and sold at the corner of Barr and Berry streets.

Do you wish to save money in buying Table Linen, Towels or Napkins? Then go to J. Pierr's. He sells them cheaper than any other house in the city.

Something New.
Go and see the gasoline cooking stoves at Ash's. They are perfectly safe, clean and very powerful. You can wash, bake, iron, and in fact do everything you can do on a wood or coal stove, and have no heat from it.

Sickening Accident.
The terrible accident in the Tremont House elevator was one of the most sickening on record, and the details are perfectly horrible. Something should be done to avoid such terrible and frightful occurrences. It should also be remembered that the Old Pioneer Boot and Shoe firm of E. Vordermark & Son, at the sign of the Big Red Boot, No. 32 Calhoun street, are still in the field, and that they have the largest assortment of boots and shoes ever displayed in Fort Wayne. Their facilities for buying are such that they can, in the future as in the past, undersell all competitors. Don't fail to go and see E. Vordermark & Son's immense stock before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the Sign of the Big Red Boot, No. 32 Calhoun street.

The best assortment of Infants' Caps can be found at J. Pierr's.

$14 will buy a good 8-inch Cook Stove weighing 300 pounds, with 52 pieces of first-class trimmings, at A. D. BRANDRIFF & Co.'s.

Smoke only the "Pony" cigar.

THE RAILROADS.
Five hundred tons of steel rails have been received at Kendallville, to be laid along the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad.

Many improvements are being made at Rome City, the popular summer resort on the G. R. & I. R. R. Two thousand feet of two-inch pipe have been laid from the water tank to the island, where there is a stand-pipe. Water is pumped into the stand-pipe by a small steam engine, and fountains are being provided in different parts of the island. Two steamers and forty small boats will ply on the lake. A new hotel is being erected, and other improvements are being made, which will render Rome City more popular than ever. At Petoskey substantial improvements are also being made. A large addition is being put on to the leading hotel, and other facilities being provided for pleasure seekers.

The Christian Church.
The Christian Church at the corner of West Jefferson and Griffith streets, has just undergone extensive repairs and improvements. The ceiling has been lowered and elaborately frescoed, the auditorium repainted throughout, new seats provided, etc., etc. The interior would hardly be recognized by the regular attendants upon the church. It will be reopened on Sunday, and Elder L. L. Carpenter will preach both morning and evening.

A Card of Thanks.
To the Editor of the Sentinel:
Allow me, through your widely-circulated journal, to return my hearty thanks to the voters of all parties who so generously supported me with their votes last Tuesday. In return for this mark of confidence I promise to make as good and efficient an officer as lies in my power.

Shocking Developments at Police Court—The Nether Side of Fort Wayne Life—The Hopeless Depravity of a Girl of Sixteen.
The nether side of Fort Wayne life was forcibly illustrated this morning at Police court, in the case of a girl not over sixteen years of age, named Mamie Price, who was arraigned on a charge of vagrancy, who hailed from Van Wert. Notwithstanding her recent career of debauchery and exposure, the girl is still good-looking. She pleaded guilty to the charge but asked leave to make a statement in mitigation, upon the strength of which the mayor discharged her.

From her statement in court and from other sources it is gathered that the girl's home is in Van Wert, where her mother lives, her father being dead. Some time since she obtained a place as servant at Van Wert, and while thus engaged she asserts that she was seduced under promise of marriage. When coming events began to cast their shadows her seducer offered to marry her but she claims that her mother refused permission. An abortion was produced upon her, and last Monday she came to this city to visit relatives who are very respectable people. She stayed at their house on Monday night. Since Tuesday morning she has been roaming about the city and some of the details of her life are too filthy for publication. She fell into the company of a number of two-legged beasts who infest this community, whose conduct with her staggers description. On Wednesday night she says she remained in a caboose in the railroad yard in which twelve men slept. Yesterday morning she went out to the woods near the organ factory, where she remained all day, obtaining half a dozen or more depraved specimens of the male sex. She was pined with wine and whisky during the day, and was found last evening by a peeler in a drunken stupor, and taken to the station house. She promised his honor to return to Van Wert and reform, and was discharged upon condition of leaving town at once. It is evident that the girl is totally depraved, and it seems that, notwithstanding her tender age, the case is a hopeless one.

BREVITIES.

The superior court was not in session to-day.

There are no new developments in the Ebright case.

The SENTINEL is now delivered to the remotest parts of the city.

The SENTINEL, only 25 cents a month; cheapest daily paper in the country.

Marriage licenses: William Laughlin and Francis Gustin; Conrad Daseler and Minnie Elix.

Hon. R. C. Bell returned home last night, having been engaged for several days in the trial of an important case at Columbia City.

J. S. Burkholder, whose furniture factory was burned down last winter, has opened a new factory on Water street, where he employs fifteen men.

The New Haven town election resulted as follows: Trustees, Jos. Stark, John B. Becker, clerk, Bernard Dowling; treasurer, H. H. Schnelker; marshal, Ed. Keefe.

Several city clergymen went to Rome City to-day to meet clergymen from along the line of the G. R. & I. R. Road, who are in session there arranging for the holding of a grand Sunday school congress in June at that place.

Richard Blake, whose body was found at Bluffton yesterday, died from the effects of a fall on Wednesday night while he was intoxicated. He was forty years old and formerly hailed from this city, where he has relatives living.

Hiram Littleman, a member of the Omish sect, was hanged in by the police last night. At the mayor's court this morning he asked only fifteen minutes in which to get out of town. His honor granted that boon readily, and the Littleman walked off in a very happy frame of mind.

THE COURTS.

CIRCUIT.
PROBATE.
Abraham Wolf vs. estate of Wm. Shultz, allowance $219.
Abraham Wolf vs. estate of Madias Strodel, allowance $37.52.
Abraham Wolf vs. estate of Geo. W. Robinson, allowance $35.82.

SUPERIOR.
NEW SUIT.
Ochmig Wiley et al vs. City of Fort Wayne, $300.

POLICE.
James Horrigan, chronic drunkard, 55 days in jail; Hiram Littleman, same charge, ordered to leave town; Mamie Price, drunkenness and vagrancy, discharged.

The Horrible Harrigan.
Jim Harrigan is irrepressible. Yesterday morning he was before the mayor and that dignitary discharged him upon his promise that he would leave the city at once and not show up again until after the heated term. Jim did not keep his word, and when the evening shadows began to thicken he was again in the familiar cell at the station house. This morning the mayor beamed upon him, and gave him fifty-five days in jail, which will take him over the best end of the watering place season.

Infidelity on a Canal Boat.
This afternoon Anna Dolman applied in the circuit court for a divorce from Thomas Dolman, to whom she was married in 1875. She says that she has always been a first-class wife in every respect, but that he has treated her inhumanly, knocking her down, beating her, calling her a strumpet, etc. On the 6th of May she says he beat and wounded her so badly that she had to go to bed and send for a doctor. He also threatened to kill her. The court granted an order, to hold until June 1st, restraining the defendant from disposing of his canal boat and two mules.

The Auditor's Office.

A SENTINEL reporter dropped in at the auditor's office to day and found our good looking and genial auditor, M. E. Argo, in the best of spirits over some much-needed improvements which he has just made in the interior of the office, materially increasing his facilities and conveniences for doing business. New pigeon holes, book racks and shelving have been put in, providing places for the large number of books and records which have accumulated. Under Mr. Argo's management the business of the auditor's office is so thoroughly systematized that it works like a machine. As the SENTINEL predicted, Mr. Argo is making one of the most efficient and popular auditors Allen county ever had.

Fearful Accident.

Last evening a little daughter of Allen Spatch, aged thirteen months, fell from a second story window of his house, No. 154 Holman street, and fractured her skull. She was unconscious all of last night, but some hope is now entertained of her recovery.

Ingersoll on Laughter.

No day can be so holy but what the laugh of a child will make it holier still. Strike with the hand of fire, oh, weird musician, thy harp strings with Apollo's golden hair. Fill the vast cathedral aisles with symphonies sweet and dim, deft touches of the organ's keys; blow, bugler, blow, until thy silver notes do touch and kiss the moonlit waves and charm the lovers wandering 'mid the vine clad hills. But know your sweetest strains are discords all compared with childhood's happy laugh—the laugh that fills the eyes with light and hearts with joy. O, rippling river of laughter, thou art the blessed boundary line between the beasts and men, and every wayward wave of thine dote down some fretful fiend of care. O, laughter, rose-lipped daughter of Joy, there are dimples in thy cheeks to catch and glorify all the tears of grief.

Splitting the Difference.

[Detroit Free Press.]
A young man with the blush of country life on his cheeks sold out his produce on the market yesterday and entered a shoe store and said he wanted a pair of shoes for his wife.

"What number?" asked the clerk.

The young husband scratched his head, looked very much embarrassed, and finally said:

"Well, I've been married eight months, but this shoe business stumps me. I don't hardly believe she wears 'lebens, and I don't think she kin git into fives. I guess if we split the difference we'll hit her pretty close."

He was given a pair of eights, and after squinting along the soles he observed:

"I guess them'll do. She's awful proud, and I know she'll squeeze into them for all she's worth."

Leave your names for the DAILY SENTINEL at the office, No. 167 Calhoun street. The best paper in the city; only 25 cents per month.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The circulation of the "Sentinel" is increasing so rapidly that it is necessary to go to press at a somewhat earlier hour than formerly in order to deliver the paper in all parts of the city at a proper hour. We will therefore regard it as a great favor if our advertising patrons will hand in their favors of every description at as early an hour as possible. In no case will display advertisements or changes be received after 10 a. m. for insertion the same day, and we should like to have them as much earlier than that as possible. It is needless to suggest that our advertising patrons are as much interested as ourselves in the prompt and faithful delivery of the "Sentinel."
